Between 12 and 15 October 1953, the Friedrich August Kaserne and the Hindenburg Kaserne in Glauchau quartered about 50 men who wore red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. On 12 October, local residents observed a rail shipment of 2 SP guns, 1 tank and some trucks and radio trucks leave Glauchau. Activities increased at the installation between 16 and 19 October. The installation quartered an estimated 6 officers and 150 to 200 men, who wore red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. On 19 October,
